

Not only will this guide help you transform the way you live your life—but it will make the transition more manageable by guiding you through every step. First, we'll start with a time management program for you. Pretty soon, you'll have the time to relax again. After we get you set up and feeling like you're in control, it's time to start examining other aspects of your life. We'll set up the kids too, so you won't be getting any more of those panicky calls because you forgot about soccer practice. Next we'll look at household responsibilities, to make sure that dinner gets cooked and the laundry gets washed. With you and the home in check, we'll look at some other ways to save even more time. We'll even make sure to schedule in the one activity that so many mothers miss—time for just you. You'll be surprised at how you transform from a disorganized stress-case to a woman who accomplishes what she wants because she knows how to do it!
