

South Africa's rich cultural heritage is showcased in this collection of books from Peter Magubane. The ceremonies and artistic practices featured in these four books have been carried out for generations, passed down from mother to daughter, father to son. The initiation of boys into manhood, weddings and reed dances are illustrated in Ceremonies; in Arts and Crafts beadwork, basketwork, pottery, sculptures and murals are revealed; the traditional dress that is worn at various stages of a person's life is shown in Dress and Adornment; and Homesteads reveals the different styles of homes built and decorated by African peoples.
