

Friendship is universal, crossing continents, generations and all other barriers; friendship bracelets are for young and old, teenagers and grandparents, from friend to friend or boy to girl. Readers can learn to make a bracelet from colourful threads and tie it on a friend's wrist - a lasting token of regard and affection. No weaving equipment is necessary, just the learning of two basic knots and then the knotting of colourful threads, attached to a safety pin to keep the work taut. This book shows - row-by-row in coloured easy-to-follow diagrams - how to make 22 different designs of bracelet. Using 8 or ten threads per row, readers can create chevrons, stripes, diamonds and a host of other patterns in a variety of colours.
