

Espana es un pais en el que esta en debate el tema de la memoria historica. Una sociedad dividida es testigo de los juicios bajo los cuales se acusa al juez Baltasar Garzon por investigar los crimenes del franquismo. Miles de personas se manifiestan a su favor, pidiendo que se haga justicia por delitos cometidos durante el regimen dictatorial del Caudillo, Francisco Franco, mientras que otros tantos acusan y persiguen a todo aquel que intente desenterrar el pasado, sin querer pensar sobre lo que se ha heredado de aquellos tiempos. Ante este panorama, en el que las memorias de vencedores y vencidos permanecen enfrentadas, resulta interesante voltear la mirada hacia los objetos culturales, entre ellos el cine, generados en la epoca, pues mucho del arte generado durante el franquismo, tendra en el una gran carga ideologica de las facciones que se enfrentaban, y que se encuentran hoy, en disputa. Asi, las peliculas de Carlos Saura, son un testimonio vivo de aspectos que tenian lugar en la Espana de Franco, que representan a la sociedad espanola de la epoca desde una mirada que exige al espectador una inmersion mas profunda que la de la propia narracion.
