

In this partly autobiographical book, Rien Broekmans explains the cosmic laws that govern every meeting and gathering of life partners. With a yes, partners comply with Gods laws. The author also explains how it is that lasting harmony between partners is not always a given. However, by understanding it, the reader will gain strength and wisdom to remain in harmony - again - with the laws of the Creator. This book is intended for the young and old alike, for partners and for those who want to have life partners, regardless of the nature of the bond or religion. Rien Broekmans was an export manager at a time when communication was mostly done in writing. He wants to share the knowledge he gained later on about the reality based on spiritual science. In addition, his knowledge on how to write and articulate that content for others to be easily understood and to give deep insight. He is now 69 years old.
