

At last, a Bible study in easy-to-understand language, written especially for women, discusses how God's character, developed in us, affects our relationships with others. This eight-lesson Bible study discusses the character of God as seen in His relationships with His children and will encourage women to spend time in the Word and in prayer. The series teaches the skills of Bible study for the new believer, preparing the new Christian to confidently enter into additional Bible study groups.

Invite God to give you a fresh start and cooperate with His work in your life. He will take new risks and try to pursue God's best for your life. Relationships with Jesus know about how God has given you a fresh start in life.

The following is a Bible study to help you better understand this relationship that has begun between the Lord and you. It's a "fresh start" a new lease on life. This study is for those who desperately want to go forward and find greater maturity in my relationship with God. Look at the fresh start God promised Isaiah: I am about to do something new. For me it's always a great thing to start something fresh. God gave him, and ultimately the Israelites, a new beginning. You could start all over again, maybe in your marriage, maybe in your relationship with your children.

Yes, the first thing that happened when you committed your life to Christ is that God gave you a new relationship. He is now your loving Father.
