

Imagine you are raised smart, talented and sassy, in a family of renown, with a few abusive scrapes and strains, yet ready to fulfill your promised success. Drinks and drugs keep your lust for stardom in steady abeyance; however, you easily forget this routine when you find a new group of people who offer you a clean place to sleep, in exchange for daily menial tasks and belief in their brand of spiritual enlightenment. Thinking you found the salvation of your dreams you pack it in, and live with them, for the next eighteen years. Imagine that you lose yourself into this lifestyle and become totally indoctrinated in their program. You develop their cult mind frame. Then suddenly, one day, without warning, God shifts. You breathe-in unexpectedly, and realize what you've done. Sadly you realize that all those years are gone. Slowly, you leave this fissure of rancid collective thinking, the collective New Age cult mind frame, and begin to heal and learn. You begin to make a new start for yourself by writing your story and being with God. Tired and ill, but with the same zest for life, you learn how to begin again. Imagine if this was your story. What would you do? Join Lani now, as you read her story and heed her call to help ex-New Age cult members heal, recover and grow. Healing the New Age cult society is a new kind of cult healing, and Lani's story and recommendations are unparalleled.
