

Once called publishing on demand and dropped by larger publishers as unfeasible, the author shows you how you can attractively and inexpensively put your book into print with as few as one copy! Gallopade Publishing fulfills its orders via a Book Bakery system where only the books needed for that days orders are printed and bound. The ramifications for reduced space requirements, operating at a perpetual profit, and Trying out a title are immense. The only book and operation - (in its 16th successful year) - of its kind we know of.
