

Her fingertips brushed across the pitted metal, the touch electrifying her, clouding the woman's judgement. The urge to slice the blade through human flesh stripped away her rationality. The vacuum left from the knife's last fleeing spirit needed filling. Gareth Tyler's sister was brutally murdered five years ago and he will stop at nothing to find the monster who tortured her. He would avenge her death. Cameron Smith didn't want his girlfriend to leave for university, even if his best friend, Billy, had promised to look after her. He would just have to contend with hanging out with Billy's brother until she returned. After five years of quiet, the two blades were ready for fresh blood. Two more souls to release. Two more human vessels to fill. One sacred site hidden within the small town of Leechester attract both the living and the trapped souls. In a race against time, they have to stop the one man from opening the void from this reality into the realm of the dead.

Look! A post that isn't a meme!) Named from the reflective appearance of its madra, this Path combines the aspects of sword and force madra. The portion of the blade distal to the mirror is angulated at degrees from the proximal section (Fig. ). The stainless steel mirror is attached to the blade. This mystical blade emits an illusionary light and serves as a vessel of power and of protection. It ends all that stand in its way.
