

Originally published in 1983, this collection represents some of the greatest short fiction from one of the genres most renowned authors. These collected works were written throughout Clarkes career, from 1946 to 1981-originally appearing in science fiction magazines such as Thrilling Wonder Stories, Famous Fantastic Mysteries, and OMNI. Between these pages youll find some of Clarkes most groundbreaking early stories-many of which influenced later classic novel-length work. The title story, The Sentinel, formed the foundation for what would later become the Space Odyssey series-perhaps Clarkes most famous work. Youll also find Guardian Angel, a rarely reproduced story that was the inspiration for Childhoods End.
