

Loki came to Memphis Animal Services in the fall of 2010 as a scrawny, sick puppy. He was adopted soon after to be the first dog Kathryn ever owned. Since then, Loki has grown into a patient, smart, and eager dog with a personality all his own. This year-long photo adventure highlights places in Memphis - both well known and rarely frequented - and features Loki as the ever faithful subject. Whether you are someone who has lived in Memphis your entire life or a visitor looking for what the Bluff City has to offer, take a cue from Loki and explore some of the great places that make up Memphis with fresh eyes, a sense of humor, and an open heart. One photo. Once a week. One year. The Year of the Dog: 52 Weeks of Memphis.
