

If you have an autism spectrum disorder yourself or are trying to understand someone with a uniquely beautiful view of the world – welcome. The world, inside and out, is shown with the help of the endearing character, Jill. She tells of the trials and tribulations of life with an autism spectrum disorder. Through creative poems and pictures she will show you how she learns to interact with the world. A very personal journey for author, Jill Kathleen, Welcome to Jillville is the product of years of learning about herself, the world, and how the two must meet. Adults and children alike – come explore Jillville! All are invited and all are welcome!
