He scatters seeds all over the place and watches to see where they will grow. Sound familiar? This story is adapted from Jesus' Parable of the Sower. Timing is everything when it comes to planting seeds for fall harvest. The average date of the first hard frost is the most important factor when. And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and As he sows, some of the seed falls by the way-side, and the birds come and peck it. Fall is the time when many trees, shrubs and wild plants release their seeds -- making it a good time to explore their many dispersal strategies and collect them. The Parable of the Sower is a parable of Jesus found in the three Synoptic Gospels in Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In the story, a sower sows seed and does so indiscriminately. Some seed falls on the path (wayside) with no soil, some on rocky ground. Buy products related to fall vegetable seeds and see what customers say about fall vegetable seeds on elevateexperience.com?
